

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

First-ever art-backed Tracker Certificate launched: “Warhol Mao72 CHF Tracker Certificate” offers Swiss investors exposure to an iconic Andy Warhol Masterpiece.

Zürich / Vaduz 13.5.2025 The Swiss issuer of financial instruments, Helveteq and ARTEX Global Markets proudly announce the launch of the Warhol Mao72 CHF Tracker Certificate (ISIN: CH1442756966), the first tracker certificate backed by ownership in a single blue-chip artwork: Mao (1972) by Andy Warhol, one of the most provocative and collectible works of postwar American Pop Art.

This revolutionary financial product opens access to the fine art market, trading over USD 65 billion per year, by allowing investors to gain exposure to a securitized, museum-quality asset in a liquid, transparent format. The Warhol Mao72 CHF Tracker Certificate gives Swiss investors a way to invest in one of Warhol’s most culturally resonant creations.

Product highlights:

- Backed by Warhol’s Mao (1972): A seminal work combining celebrity, propaganda, and Pop aesthetics, stored securely and fully insured.
- Fractionalized access: Each certificate reflects partial ownership of the underlying artwork, bridging the gap between traditional finance and art collecting.
- Subscription: The product (ISIN: CH1442756966) is available via any Swiss financial institution.

The Mao series marked a dramatic pivot in Warhol’s career, blending political iconography with media glamor. This particular 1972 version, bold, confrontational, and unmistakably Warhol, has long been coveted by private collectors and public institutions alike.

By turning a single, physical Warhol masterpiece into a regulated, investable instrument, Helveteq and ARTEX are expanding access to alternative assets and pioneering a new era of cultural investment.

The Warhol Mao72 CHF Tracker Certificate is available for subscription until June 26th, 2025. Investors can find detailed information and disclosures under this link <https://helveteq.com/warhol-mao72-chf-tracker-certificate/>
